and of

- the implementation agreements between the University of Udine and the CRUP Foundation of both 2014 and 2015, and the memorandum of understanding between the Provincial Administration of Udine and the University for the support of educational and scientific activity in the aforementioned University for 2014/2015 which provides for the co-funding of a researcher letter a) for the Stella Park project;

and of

- the resolution of the Department of History and the Preservation of Cultural Heritage of 16/09/2015 which calls for the activation of a selection process for recruiting a fixed-term researcher, pursuant to art. 24, clause 3, letter a) of law n. 240/10, of three years duration, for the competition sector 10/A1 Archaeology, using the funds of the conventions mentioned above;

and of

- the resolution of the Department of History and the Preservation of Cultural Heritage mentioned above provides for a possible extension for only two years and once only, dependent on a positive evaluation of the teaching and research activity carried out and on the finding of sufficient future funding to cover the additional two years;

and having taken note

- that the financial cover for the contract of a fixed-term researcher is guaranteed by the above mentioned conventions;

and of

- the authorizations of the University Senate on 25/11/2015 and the Board of Governors on 27/11/2015;

having ascertained

- the need to fill the post by immediately issuing the announcement,

HEREBY DECREES

Article 1

A public selection is hereby announced, by means of a comparative assessment, to recruit a fixed-term researcher pursuant to art. 24 clause 3 letter a) of Law n. 240 of 30.12.2010, based on the following specifications:

Department of History and the Preservation of Cultural Heritage Competition sector: 10/A1 Archaeology

Profile: Scientific-disciplinary sector L-ANT/10 Methodologies of archaeological research

Duration of contract: three years, extendible for two years only and once only, conditional on the finding of suitable funding in the future to cover the other two years and a positive assessment of the didactic activities and research carried out

Conditions: full time, with 350 hours for didactic activities, additional didactics and services to students

Research Project:

"The territory of the Stella river in the classical and post-classical period. Study for the creation of an archaeological park"

The research program includes:

1. Collection and analysis of surface and underwater archaeological data, for the study of the territory.
2. Reconstruction of the fluvial landscape in the classical and post-classical period: identification of the elements characterising the morphology of the territory; possible paleoenvironmental changes due to climate change and the impact of human activity.
3. Analysis of the dynamics of settlement and land use of the Stella river, with particular attention to the links between river, lagoon and nautical transport.
4. Preparation of an archaeological map of the Stella river.
5. The preparation of an English-language monograph concerning the human occupancy of the area, to be published in an international series after a double blind peer-review. The said monograph need not be finished by the end of the three-year period, but the relevant scientific data must have been collected and partially elaborated.

Duration of the research programme: three years

Professor responsible: Prof. Patrizia Augusta Verduchi, Associate Professor at the University of Udine, Scientific-disciplinary sector L-ANT/09

Specific functions and objectives allocated:

In collaboration with the project director, the researcher will be responsible for the management and the organisation of the research activities established by the Stella River Archaeological Park Project.

More specifically, the researcher will be involved in the collection and consequent elaboration of data relating to the settlement and use of territory in the area of the Stella river.

Further requirements are:

- to decide mutually with the project director activities which are to be conducted at the University of Udine;
- to collaborate in the organisation and implementation of the "Stella River Archaeological Park Project" financed by the Province of Udine and the CRUP Foundation, wherein the Department of History and Preservation of Cultural Heritage of the University of Udine is the executive body;
- to present and periodically discuss the results gained with the director of the research programme;
- to take an active part in the publication of the results obtained through the research project by the production of scholarly papers and through presentations at national and international meetings.

Didactic activities, additional didactics (60 hours) and services to students:

The researcher will carry out teaching relating to the sector designated L-Ant/10 (Methodology of archaeological research) in the three-year B.A. degree course in Conservation of Cultural Heritage, as well as in the related M.A. course organized in conjunction with a neighbouring university in the Scientific Study of the Ancient World: Archaeology, History, Literature, in accordance with the educational programme offered and the organisation of the relevant degree courses. The researcher will take part as an active member in exam commissions in the courses included in the relevant area, as well as in degree commissions. They will assist students in the redaction of the final thesis when requested and they will provide support relevant to the activities required for the aforementioned degrees.

Workplace:

The research activities will be conducted primarily at the Department of History and the Preservation of Cultural Heritage of the University of Udine and in the area surrounding the Stella river. The researcher will be permitted to take part in activities at the Institute of Nautical Archaeology of the Department of Anthropology of the Texas A&M University or in other institutions as yet to be defined, according to the requirements of the project.

Maximum number of publications to be presented: twelve

Article 2Requirements for admission to the comparative assessment

The procedure is open to Italian and foreign citizens having at least one of the following qualifications in the appropriate field of study and research:

- Ph.D. or equivalent;
- Master's degree (laurea magistrale), or equivalent, together with a professional scientific curriculum suitable for the carrying out of the research activities.

Pursuant to art. 6 , clause 2, of the University Regulations the following are also required:

- proven completion of research and teaching activities in the disciplinary sector L-ANT/10 Methodologies of archaeological research;
- In-depth knowledge of the problems involved in the methodologies of underwater archaeological research and naval archaeology, especially as regards river settings and the techniques of ship construction in the Upper Adriatic area in classical and post-classical times;
- Extensive experience in underwater archaeological work, study and publications concerning shipwrecks in the disciplinary sector L-ANT/10

The adjudicating commission shall evaluate the above requirements.

The following categories are excluded from the comparative assessment:

- full and associate professors and researchers with permanent positions in Italian Universities, even if they have retired;
- those who have already had contracts with research grants and fixed-term researchers pursuant to arts. 22 and 24 of Law 240/2010 at the University of Udine or other Italian Universities, state-run or not, or on-line, and also those Bodies pursuant to clause 1 art. 22 of Law 240/2010, for a period which, added to the overall duration of three years envisaged for the contract announced, exceeds a total of 12 years, even if not continuously. For the purposes of the duration of such relationships, any periods spent on maternity leave, or for health reasons according to current legislation, shall not be considered;

- those who have any degree of family relationship or affinity, up to the fourth degree, or are connected by marriage, with a professor or permanent researcher belonging to the Department proposing to issue the contract (Department of Humanistic studies and cultural heritage; list accessible on the link <http://www.uniud.it/it/ateneo-uniud/concorsi-bandi-uniud/concorsi/bandi-docenti-ricercatori/ricercatori-tempo-determinato-uniud>), or with the Rector, the Administrative Director or any component of the University Board of Governors (<http://www.uniud.it/ateneo/organizzazione/organi/composizione.htm>);
- those who are excluded from civil and political rights;
- those who have been dismissed or dispensed from a position at a Public Administration due to a persistent unsatisfactory performance;
- those who have been dismissed from another State position pursuant to art. 127 letter d) of Presidential Decree n. 3 of 10/1/1957.

The requirements must be possessed on the date when the deadline for presenting the application for admission to the procedure expires.

Candidates are admitted to the comparative assessment only conditionally, and exclusion from the procedure due to a lack of the requirements is decided by a justified decree by the Rector, and notified to the candidate concerned.

The Administration guarantees equality and equal opportunities to men and women for access to and treatment in the workplace.

Article 3

Application for admission

Application for admission to the comparative assessment must necessarily be drawn up following the outline shown in attachment "A" for Italian candidates and attachment "B" for foreign candidates, which must be filled in in every part and signed by the candidate, otherwise the candidate will be excluded.

The application must be addressed to the University of Udine – Area Organizzazione e Personale – Ufficio Concorsi – Via Palladio 8, 33100 Udine.

The application must be presented within the established, non-extendible deadline, that is, within 30 days from the day following the publication of the announcement in the Official Gazette of the Republic of Italy. Otherwise the candidate will be excluded. If the deadline expires on a holiday, it is postponed to the first working day thereafter.

The options for presenting the application are as follows:

- hand in to the protocol Office (Ufficio Protocollo) (from Monday to Friday 9.00 – 11.30);
- send by registered post with notification of receipt within the established deadline. For this purpose the date of the post mark of the Post Office that accepts the application shall be the accepted date.
- send by mailbox "Posta Elettronica Certificata (PEC) to the address amce.postacert.uniud.it. The application and all the attachments are to be signed with a digital signature or a scanned written signature accompanied by a copy of the identity card in PDF/A or Adobe PDF format. In case of a scanned written signature the mailbox of the electronic PEC will be that of the applicant.

The candidate who sends documentation via PEC need not subsequently send documents on paper.

Any application transmitted by a non-certified electronic mail address, or not in conformity with the dispositions of this clause, shall not be considered.

All publications must be numbered and the title of each file containing publications must include the relative enumeration of the documents and preferably not exceed 30 characters.

The maximum size supported by PEC is 20 MB. If the applicant wishes to present a number of attachments which exceeds that limit, he/she will have to submit the application with a first dispatch, enclosing a message to specify that part or all of the attachments will follow in successive dispatch(es), always before the deadline for the submission of the application. Each Certified Mail must include reference to the competition procedure.

The University Administration declines all responsibility if the files sent by PEC are illegible.

Any candidate recognized as disabled must specify in the application any equipment needed for his/her disability, pursuant to Law n. 104 of 05/02/1992.

Candidates are required to pay a contribution of €20 to the bank account n. 000040469443 (ABI 02008 CAB 12310 CIN R IBAN IT23R0200812310000040469443 BIC UNCRITM1UN6) at UNICREDIT BANCA Spa - Udine, in the name of the University of Udine, and must indicate as cause of payment: "Contribution for selection – Competition sector ...".

The receipt of payment must be attached with the application.

The University Administration declines all responsibility if the candidate cannot be found and if communications are lost, due to an inexact indication of the address by the candidate, or due to a late communication, or non-communication, of any change in address as indicated in the application. The University Administration also declines all responsibility for any late delivery, or non-delivery, of communications relating to the competition for reasons not imputable through gross negligence to the Administration but to postal or telegraphic mistakes, to third parties, to fortuitous events or to force majeure.

The documents attached to the application takes into account the elements of the assessment as listed in Art. 7 of the notice ("Evaluation").

The candidate must attach with the application:

- 1) photocopy of ID;
- 2) photocopy of Tax Code;
- 3) curriculum drawn up according to attachment "D", signed by the candidate and with the following attachments:
 - a) list of qualifications;
 - b) list of scientific publications to his/her name;
 - c) list of scientific publications presented for the selection process (within the maximum number of twelve as established by art. 1 of the announcement);
 - 4) documents and qualifications that the candidate considers useful for the purposes of the selection;
 - 5) publications point 3) letter c) that the candidate considers useful for the purposes of the selection (within the maximum number of twelve as established by art. 1 of the announcement);
 - 6) receipt of payment of €20.

If the application is sent in paper form, the application, documents, qualifications and publications are to be placed also on an optical or electronic storage medium, e.g. a CD or a USB stick, in PDF/A or Adobe PDF format. The applicant shall vouch, on his own responsibility, that this corresponds to the paper documentation.

The documents coming from abroad by foreign authorities must be legalized by the Italian diplomatic or consular representatives abroad and, if written in a foreign language, endorsed with a certified translation into Italian of the foreign text by the competent diplomatic or consular office or by an official translator.

Italian and EU citizens may:

- send the original qualifications, authenticated copies (also in PDF/A or Adobe PDF format) or copies declared in conformity with the original with a substitute declaration pursuant to arts. 46 and 47 of the Presidential Decree 445/2000, completing attachment C;
- otherwise, a substitute certification declaration or affidavit may be sent, completing the curriculum in conformity with attachment D.

Non-EU citizens authorized to stay in Italy pursuant to current norms, may use substitute declarations pursuant to arts. 46 and 47 of the Presidential Decree 445/2000, but only to the extent that they are used to prove conditions, facts and personal qualities that can be certified or attested by Italian public bodies.

Non-EU citizens not authorized to stay in Italy must document conditions, facts and personal qualities using certificates or statements issued by the competent authority of the foreign State.

Such documents must be legalized by the Italian diplomatic or consular delegations abroad: if written in a foreign language, they must also have the Italian translation, certified as being in conformity with the foreign text, by the competent diplomatic or consular delegation or by an official translator.

If the subject of the substitute declaration is not well identified in its nature, duration, temporal placement and body concerned, then the adjudicating commission may not take it into account.

Pursuant to the dispositions of art. 15 of Law n. 183 of 12.11.2011, the Administration does not accept certificates issued by Italian Public Administrations with regards to status, personal qualities and facts: these must always be substituted by substitute certification declarations or affidavits pursuant to arts. 46 and 47 of the Presidential Decree 445/2000.

It is not allowed to make reference in the present application to documents or publications already presented to this or other Administrations, or to documents and publications already enclosed to a different application for a different competition.

Applications that do not arrive within the deadline established by the announcement will not be taken into consideration, and no additional documentation will be admitted.

Article 4 Publications

The candidate produces his/her publications, maximum twelve as established by art. 1 of the announcement, including the Ph.D. thesis, in the original copy or declaring that the copy is in conformity (also in PDF/A or Adobe PDF format) using a substitute declaration of the affidavit, completing attachment "C".

The publications must include the date and place of publication.

Only publications or texts accepted for publication according to current norms will be taken into consideration, plus essays contained in miscellaneous works and articles in journals in paper or digital form, excluding internal notes or departmental reports. The Ph.D. thesis or equivalent qualifications will be taken into consideration even if the conditions as per the present clause are not met.

For works printed in Italy the filing requirements pursuant to Law n. 106 of 14.4.2004 must be respected, and the fact must be certified by suitable documentation or by a substitute declaration (attachment C) to be attached with the application.

Article 5 Withdrawal from procedure

The candidate wishing to withdraw will have to complete a withdrawal form, signed and dated, to be promptly transmitted to the University of Udine by Italian "Posta Elettronica Certificata" (PEC) (amce@postacert.uniud.it) or faxed to Area Organizzazione e Personale (n. fax +39-432 556339) enclosing a photocopy of a valid ID.

Article 6 Adjudicating Commission

The adjudicating commission is nominated by the Rector on the suggestion of the Department who has asked for the place to be filled, following deliberation by the Department Board.

If the candidates have any objection to one or more of the members of the adjudicating Commission, these must be made to the Rector within the non-extendible deadline of thirty days from the publication of the decree on the online notice board of the University.

Any details will also be made available on the site:

<http://www.uniud.it/it/ateneo-uniud/concorsi-bandi-uniud/bandi-docenti-ricercatori/ricercatori-tempo-determinato-uniud>

Article 7 Evaluation

The candidate is selected by means of a preliminary evaluation of the candidates with a reasoned and analytical assessment of the qualifications, curriculum and scientific production, including the Ph.D. thesis.

The adjudicating commission shall make a reasoned evaluation following a comparative assessment, with reference to the specific competition sector and the profile indicated in art. 1, of the curriculum and the following qualifications, duly documented, of the candidate:

- a) Ph.D. or equivalent, or, for the fields concerned, medical specialization diploma or equivalent, obtained in Italy or abroad;
- b) any didactic activities at University level, in Italy or abroad;
- c) documented activity in training or research at qualified Italian or foreign institutions;
- d) documented activity in the clinical field related to the competition sectors in which such specific competences are required;
- e) planning activities related to the competition sectors in which such activities are envisaged;
- f) organization, management and coordination of national and international research groups, or participation in such groups;
- g) ownership of patents related to the competition sectors in which it is envisaged;
- h) speaker at national and international conferences and conventions;
- i) national and international prizes and awards for research;
- j) European specialization diploma recognized by international Boards, related to the competition sectors in which it is envisaged.

Each qualification is evaluated by specifically considering the significance that it has with regard to the quality and quantity of the research carried out by the individual candidate.

The adjudicating commission shall make the comparative assessment of the publications as per art. 4 based on the following criteria:

- a) originality, innovation, methodological rigour and relevance of each scientific publication;
- b) congruency of each publication with the competition sector for which the process is announced and with the profile indicated in art. 1, or with inter-disciplinary themes connected thereto;
- c) scientific relevance of the editorial location of each publication and its diffusion inside the scientific community;
- d) analytical determination, also based on criteria recognized in the relative international scientific community, of the individual contribution of the candidate if he/she participates in collaborative work.

The adjudicating commission shall also evaluate the overall consistency of the candidate's scientific production, its intensity and continuity over time, taking into account any periods, properly documented, which the candidate involuntarily spent away from research, with particular reference to parenting.

Within the framework of the competition sectors where there is a consolidated use thereof at an international level, when assessing the publications the commission shall also make use of the following indicators, referred to the deadline for the candidature:

- a) total number of citations;
- b) average number of citations per publication;
- c) total impact factor;
- d) average impact factor per publication;
- e) combination of the previous parameters able to optimize the impact of the candidate's scientific production (Hirsch index or similar).

The adjudicating Commission, in respect of current norms concerning author's rights, shall use the publications presented by the candidate exclusively for reasons of the present application.

Following the preliminary assessment, between 10 and 20 percent of the comparatively most meritorious candidates, and in any case no fewer than six, shall be admitted to the public discussion with the commission of their qualifications and scientific production; the candidates shall all be admitted to the discussion if there are six or fewer candidates.

The result of the preliminary assessment will be published on the University on-line noticeboard, and the University website.

After the discussion, points are awarded to the qualifications and to each of the publications presented by the candidates admitted.

The maximum number of points that can be awarded for qualifications and publications is 100, subdivided as follows:

- | | |
|------------------|-----------|
| - qualifications | 30 points |
| - publications | 70 points |

Candidates must present themselves for the discussion with a valid ID or equivalent document pursuant to art. 35 clause 2 of Presidential Decree 445/2000.

Candidates admitted to the discussion shall be notified by registered letter (with notification of receipt) not less than twenty days before the day of the discussion.

The date of the discussion will be published on the site:

<http://www.uniud.it/it/ateneo-uniud/concorsi-bandi-uniud/bandi-docenti-ricercatori/ricercatori-tempo-determinato-uniud>

Any candidate summoned who does not present himself/herself for the discussion will be deemed to have explicitly and definitively renounced his/her participation in the selection.

At the end of their deliberations, the adjudicating commission, based on the points awarded to the qualifications and publications, declare the winning candidate and draw up the classification.

Article 8 Validity of the records

The records of the adjudicating commission consist of the minutes of the meetings and the attachments thereto, the final classification and the report summarizing the work performed.

Within thirty days of the records being handed in, and after verifying that the procedure was correctly carried out, the Rector approves the records with a decree. Otherwise, the Rector shall return the papers to the adjudicating commission, at the same time assigning to it a deadline to regularize them.

The decree approving the records, the final report and the final classification will be made public on the University's on-line noticeboard and web site.

Within sixty days of the records being approved, the Department shall formulate the proposal to call the successful candidate, upon a favourable vote by the absolute majority of full and associate professors, which must be approved by a decision of the Board of Governors.

Article 9 Return of documents and publications

Documents and publications attached to the application will be returned by post to those candidates who so request, 180 days after the publication of the decree approving the records and within the following 30 days. Publications presented as originals for which no request for return is made shall be sent to the Inter-Departmental Libraries Center, to further increase the University book stocks. All the remaining documentation shall be eliminated according to legal norms. The candidate must indicate, when he/she applies, whether he/she wishes the documentation to be returned.

Article 10 Documents required for drawing up the contract

The successful candidate is called by the Rector.

If he/she is an Italian or other EU citizen, the successful candidate must send the following documentation within the deadline established by the Administration, otherwise the appointment shall lapse:

- 1) Declaration pursuant to Presidential Decree 445/2000, attesting:
 - a) that the candidate was in possession of his/her civil and political rights on the expiry date of the announcement;
 - b) any lawsuits pending on the expiry date of the announcement;
 - c) family unit;
 - d) that he/she has no other positions working for the State, local Bodies, other public administrations or private bodies or, otherwise, that he/she opts for the new position.

For the whole duration of the contract the researcher, if employed by State administrations, shall be put on leave without pay or national insurance contributions, or taken off the permanent staff if such position is envisaged by the regulations of the employing structure.

If not an EU citizen, the researcher must present the following documents, within the deadline established by the Administration and according to the provisions of clauses 2, 3 and 4 of art. 3 of Presidential Decree 445/2000, otherwise the appointment lapses:

- 1) Birth certificate.
- 2) Certificate equivalent to the general certificate of the judicial register issued by the competent Authority of the State where the foreign candidate is a citizen. If normally living in Italy pursuant to art. 3 of Presidential Decree 445/2000, as well as the above certificate, the foreign candidate must also self-certify that he/she has no penal convictions or pending charges.
- 3) Certificate of nationality.
- 4) Certificate attesting that the candidate was in possession of his/her civil and political rights on the expiry date of the announcement.

Documents as per 2), 3) and 4) must be dated no earlier than six months from the date the result of the competition was published.

Certificates issued by the competent Authorities of the State where the researcher is a citizen must be legalized by the Italian diplomatic or consular delegations abroad; if written in a foreign language, they must also have the Italian translation, certified as being in conformity with the foreign text, by the competent diplomatic or consular delegation or by an official translator.

Article 11 Contract of work

The Rector shall enter into a fixed-term contract of work with the successful candidate.

The introduction of the work contract shall in any case respect the limits established by current legislation in terms of the employment of personnel.

The researcher shall provide the services as per art. 1 of the announcement.

The contract shall last three years, extendible for two years only and once only, conditional on the finding of suitable funding in the future to cover the other two years and a positive assessment of the didactic activities and research carried out.

Annual gross remuneration: € 34,898.06, corresponding to the initial salary of a confirmed full-time researcher.

The overall number of hours for didactic activities, additional didactics and services to students is 350 hours. There is a probationary period of three months, during which each of the Parties may terminate the contract at any time with no notice, effective immediately upon communication to the other Party.

The researcher shall perform his activities in the place indicated in art. 1 of the announcement. He/she shall perform his activities according to the provisions of the contract and the programming of the competent bodies. The research shall be carried out under the direction of the person responsible for the research project.

The researcher shall respect the internal regulations concerning the protection of intellectual and industrial property and confidentiality, and also the directives issued by the scientific director concerning the diffusion of knowledge and know-how acquired during his activities.

The research must be self-certified annually by report and then validated by the person responsible for the research project or, if not available, by the Departmental Director. For the purposes of presenting the financial statement for research projects, the researcher's annual activities, including research, study and teaching, with the connected preparation, testing and organization, amount to 1500 hours per annum.

Direct teaching and other activities connected to teaching shall be certified by the class register and the register of didactic commitments.

The researcher shall undergo the health checks provided by Legislative Decree 81/2008 and subsequent amendments.

The researcher is subject to the disciplinary competence of the Commission pursuant to art. 10 of Law 240/2010.

The dispositions of the University Statute shall also be applied to the researcher, including those concerning the possibility of voting and standing for election in the University bodies.

The researcher's work relationship is disciplined by current dispositions regarding subordinate work, including those concerning tax deductions and welfare and national health contributions for the employed.

According to the programming resources available, the Department may, with the researcher's consent and in the six months prior to the expiry of the contract, propose an extension thereof, for once only and for two years only, justifying said extension with reference to didactic and research requirements.

The researcher's teaching and research shall be evaluated by a suitable commission appointed by the Rector, based on a report prepared by the Department.

If the assessment is positive, the proposed extension is subject to approval by the Board of Governors within the deadline of the contract to be extended.

The work relationship shall terminate when the contract expires or if one of the Parties withdraws.

The researcher may withdraw from the contract by giving the University a sixty-day notice. In the absence of such notice, the University has the right to withhold from the researcher an amount corresponding to the remuneration for the period of notice not given.

If there is a cause that prevents the relationship from continuing, even provisionally, withdrawal for a just cause is allowed, pursuant to art. 2119 of the Civil Code.

A fixed-term researcher's contract is incompatible with:

- participation in a Ph.D. Programme;
- award of a research grant;
- award of scholarships or research scholarships and similar fixed-term contracts already entered into with Udine or other Universities;
- practice of trade and industry;
- private practice;
- any other subordinate work relationship with public or private bodies.

The researcher is allowed to carry out other temporary teaching posts for payment, and other jobs conferred by third parties if authorized by the Rector following a written opinion given by the Departmental Director, provided that these do not entail any conflict of interest with the University and are compatible with the proper performance of the research according to the contract.

The contract does not give any right regarding access to tenured positions at the University.

Article 12

Processing of personal data

Pursuant to art. 13 of Legislative Decree 196/2003, candidates are informed that the data contained in the applications is processed for the purposes of managing the selection procedure, a possible drawing up of the subordinate work contract and of managing the subsequent relationship with the University. The data will be processed by computer and using paper archives for the relative records. The information may be communicated only to the public Administrations directly involved in the juridical and economic position of the researcher.

Candidates are reminded that it is obligatory to provide the data requested and should this be refused, the candidate shall not be admitted to the procedure.

Candidates enjoy all the rights pursuant to art. 7 of Legislative Decree 196/2003.

The Holder of the processing rights is Prof. Alberto Felice De Toni, Rector of the University of Udine.

The person in charge of processing is Ms. Angela Iuretigh, Head of Organization and Personnel.

Article 13

Responsibility for the method

The person responsible for the method used in the public selection is Ms. Silvia De Liddo - Organization and Personnel.

Article 14

Publication

The present announcement is published on the University website at the following address:

<http://www.uniud.it/it/ateneo-uniud/concorsi-bandi-uniud/bandi-docenti-ricercatori/ricercatori-tempo-determinato-uniud> and on those of the Ministry of Education, Universities and Research and of the European Union.

The announcement is published in the Official Gazette of the Republic of Italy.
