NGatlantic.eu - 4th Open Call

The main goal of the NGatlantic.eu Open Calls is to incentivize EU – US NGI teams to carry out experiments using EU and/or US based experimental platforms.

Priority areas of the 4th Call:

- a. EU – US Experimental Platforms interconnection: this topic invites established designers and facility providers of experimental infrastructures, testbeds, and platforms enabling experimentation in the NGI areas on both sides of the Atlantic to interconnect with each other, to offer their facilities on a continuous basis to its community of experimenters and application developers in other NGI topics.
- b. NGI Priority topics where results are already available for experimentation on EU – US platforms. The focus on this part of the call will be taking results from topics already in a mature state in the related priority topics of the NGI initiative to the next stage of experimentation of results on EU – US experimental platforms. Topics:
  1. Strengthening trustworthiness and resilience of internet
  2. Greening the Internet: a Sustainable and Climate-friendly NGI
  3. Service and data portability
  4. Open Internet architecture renovation
  5. Internet data sharing and interoperable services

It is possible for EU – US teams to put in one application that include both elements of a. and b.

Deadline: 15/09/2021 (17:00, CEST)
