

Paolo Ermano, PhD.

Udine, Italy

paolo.ermano@uniud.it

paoloermano@gmail.com

TEACHING

2017 – up to present: Laboratory of Business Strategy – Università of Udine

2012 – up to present: International Economics – Università of Udine

2011 – 2013: Political economy – University of Venice (Ca' Foscari)

2009 – 2016, 2021: Macroeconomics – Università of Udine and University of Trieste

2008 – 2009: Microeconomics – Università of Udine and University of Padua

2019 – 2021: Urban Economics – Università of Udine

RESEARCH

2024: Student population in Italy: a demographic approach – University of Sassari

2023: STEM and University Enrollment – University of Udine

2018-2020: New firms and New Entrepreneurship: a regional study on the firms structure – University of Udine

2010-2013: Comparative evaluation of public firm's efficiency – University of Udine

2010-2011: Smart Inclusion – University of Verona

2009-2010: Hydroponic and floating system: an economics assessment – University of Udine

2007-2009: Knowledge and Democracy: an institutional economics approach – University of Turin

CONSULTANT

2019 – up to present: Board Member of MSG s.p.a.

2015 – up to present: Project managers for creative industries

2021-2023: Economic advisor for the Regione F.V.G. (Strategic Plan for the Special Logistics Area)

2022: Economic advisor for Friuli Innovation – TechMology

2019-2022: Innovation Manager – Albinet s.r.l.

2014-2019: Event Manager – Conoscenza in Festa, University of Udine

EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND

2008: Post-Doc Visiting – Stirling University (UK)

2008: PhD on Institutional Economics – University of Turin

2005: Master's degree in Economics – CO.RI.PE and University of Turin

2004: Bachelor's degree in International Economics – University of Trieste